

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Responsive Education Solutions (“ResponsiveEd”) is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination and to the provision of equity in its educational programs, services and activities for all students and employees. ResponsiveEd prohibits discrimination, including harassment, and retaliation in any of its programs, activities, services, or other operations against any student or employee. Reports of harassment or discrimination can be made at any time and by any person, including during non-school hours, by mail, phone, or email. During school business hours, reports may also be made in person. ResponsiveEd will investigate allegations of harassment and discrimination complaints promptly, thoroughly, and impartially.

The ResponsiveEd Non-Discrimination Policy is available on the ResponsiveEd website. To obtain a copy of the grievance process that complies with federal Title IX regulations, please contact the Title IX coordinator below. Title IX training materials are available on the ResponsiveEd website and are also available for inspection upon request by contacting the Title IX Coordinator.
